

Theaters/Performance Halls

(Page 1 of 2)

FACILITY ADDRESS/PHONE	SEATING CAPACITY	DESCRIPTION OF VENUE
Actors Theatre of Louisville 316 W. Main St.   502-584-1205 www.actors theatre.org		A Tony Award-winning resident professional theatre. Produces the Humana Festival of New American Plays, one of the most important events in American Theatre.
Bingham Theatre	318	Arena seating/theatre-in-the-round. Features Off-Broadway Series, Pop productions and summer musicals.
Pamela Brown Auditorium	633	Floor level and dress circle seating. Home of the 7-play Mainstage Series and holiday productions.
Victor Jory Theatre	159	Intimate, stage level seating. Features small scale and experimental productions.
Baron's Theater at Whiskey Row 131 W. Main St.   502-499-6478 www.whiskeyrowlofts.com/barons-theater	98	Formerly Squirrelly's Magic Tea Room, this tiered space is perfect for a performance, presentation, lecture, or small wedding. This privately owned facility includes a stage, backstage area, and sound booth.
W.L. Lyons Brown Theatre 315 W. Broadway   502-566-5340 www.kentuckycenter.org	1,441	Owned by Greater Louisville Fund for the Arts and managed by the Kentucky Center, this historic theatre combines state-of-the-art technology with Old World splendor to create a space that plays host to an array of performing arts presentations.
Bunbury Theatre at the Henry Clay 604 S. Third St. #301   502-585-5306 www.bunburytheatre.org	144	Founded in 1985, this intimate theater features enriching and diverse theatrical experiences in the spirit of Off-Broadway.
The Frazier History Museum 829 W. Main St.   502-753-5663 https://fraziermuseum.org	120	Features a short orientation film that guides you through America's history from colonization to independence to the early 1900s.
JCTC Fine Arts Center Recital Hall 109 E. Broadway   502-213-5333 https://jefferson.kctcs.edu	135	Known as the "chapel", this space is home to productions of the college's drama and music departments, as well as special readings and lectures.
The Kentucky Center for the Performing Arts 501 W. Main St.   502-562-0100 www.kentuckycenter.org		This state-owned facility is home to several local arts organizations as well as national and international performances.
Boyd Martin Experimental Theater "MeX"	139	A unique and versatile space that has become a favorite venue for local arts and theater groups.
Moritz von Bomhard Theater	619	An ideal facility for musical performances and smaller shows, serves as the home for Stage One, Louisville's Family Theater.
Robert S. Whitney Hall	2,377	A multipurpose facility used by the Broadway Series, Kentucky Opera, Louisville Ballet, Louisville Orchestra, and special event presentations.

(continued)

Theaters/Performance Halls

(Page 2 of 2)

FACILITY ADDRESS/PHONE	SEATING CAPACITY	DESCRIPTION OF VENUE
Kentucky Science Center/IMAX Theatre 727 W. Main St.   502-561-6100 www.kysciencecenter.org  KentuckyShow! www.kentuckyshow.com	225	Presenting the latest and most popular IMAX films, this motion picture system provides a high fidelity audiovisual film experience with a strong sense of reality.  A 32-minute multimedia experience narrated by Ashley Judd that captures Kentucky's history, people, culture, economy, and geography.
KFC Yum! Center 1 Arena Plaza   502-690-9000 www.kfcyumcenter.com	22,500	The official home of the University of Louisville men's and women's basketball programs and women's volleyball program. Aside from being a great concert and sporting event venue, the arena also has spaces to rent for private events.
Louisville Memorial Auditorium 970 S. Fourth St.   502-584-4911 www.louisvillememorialauditorium.com	1,742	This historic facility, owned by the Louisville Metro Government, was built as a memorial to commemorate those from Louisville and Jefferson County who served in World War I. The auditorium hosts concerts, graduations, and civic organization meetings.
The Louisville Palace 625 S. Fourth St.   502-583-4555 www.louisvillepalace.com	2,800	Privately owned, historic theatre serves as a venue for concerts and other performing arts productions including national and international performances. Also hosts a seasonal classic film series.
Louisville Slugger Museum &amp; Factory 800 W. Main St.   877-775-8443 www.sluggermuseum.org	100	Features a 13 minute inspirational film "The Heart of the Game" offering insights and anecdotes on hitting.
Mercury Ballroom 611 S. Fourth St.   502-583-4555 www.mercuryballroom.com	36	This privately owned, unique Louisville theatre offers space for special events, concerts, receptions, private events, and corporate meetings. Standing room capacity is 900.
Muhammad Ali Center 144 N. Sixth St.   502-584-9254 www.alicenter.org	158	Features 12-minute orientation film on Muhammad Ali's life and career viewed on five screens in a 270-degree configuration.
Spalding University Auditorium 824 S. Fourth St.   502-585-9911 www.spalding.edu	1,000	Features performances by Spalding University Drama Department, youth performing arts groups, and guests.
Total seating	34,744	