

FACILITY ADDRESS/PHONE	DESCRIPTION
21C Museum 700 W. Main St.   502-217-6300 www.21cmuseumhotels.com	This facility is an innovative union of authentic Southern hospitality, thoughtful design and accessible luxury — all anchored by world-class contemporary art by today’s emerging and internationally acclaimed artists. (hence the name, paying homage to the 21st century).
4th Street Live! Louisville Fourth & Muhammad Ali   502-584-7170 www.4thstlive.com	Louisville’s premier dining and entertainment destination featuring restaurants, bars, nightlife, and visitor attractions all located in the heart of Downtown.
Angel’s Envy Distillery 500 E. Main St.   502-890-6300 www.angelsenvy.com	Recently opened in a former tool manufacturing plant, guided tours of the fully operating distillery showcase the distilling process and includes bourbon tastings, a visitor center, and gift shop.
Archdiocese of Louisville History Center 424 S. Fifth St.   502-582-2971 ext 113 www.cathedraloftheassumption.org	Located within the Cathedral of the Assumption’s Patterson Education Center, the center provides an opportunity to experience first-hand, through objects and artifacts, the Catholic heritage of the Archdiocese of Louisville from its earliest beginnings in 1775 to the present day.
Belle of Louisville/Mary M. Miller 401 W. River Rd.   502-574-2992 https://belleoflouisville.org	Built in 1914, the Belle is America’s last true Mississippi river steamboat still in operation, while the Mary M. Miller, originally named Missouri River Queen was built in 1985. Both are owned by Louisville Metro Government and offer public cruises along the Ohio River.
Brennan House and Medical Office Museum 631 S. Fifth St.   502-540-5145 www.thebrennanhouse.org	The 1868 Italianate residence is preserved as the Brennan family left it, housing their collection of mid-nineteenth century art and furnishings. The medical office includes surgical instruments of the period, an examining table, and a medical library.
Copper and Kings 1121 E. Washington St.   502-561-0267 www.copperandkings.com	Using traditional copper-pot distillation, the distillery located in Butchertown produces brandy and vapor-distilled absinthe. Tours and tasting opportunities are available.
The Cressman Center for Visual Arts 100 E. Main St.   502-852-0288 http://louisville.edu/art/facilities-resources/cressman-center.html	The center is home to the University of Louisville’s Department of Fine Arts glass program. The facility features a hot shop and cold working studios, sculpture studios and shops, a seminar room, and galleries.
David Armstrong Extreme Park 531 Franklin St.   502-574-7275 https://louisvilleky.gov/government/parks/park-list/david-armstrong-extreme-park	The public skatepark provides skateboarding, in-line skating, biking opportunities for people of all ages and skill levels. The facility includes 40,000 square feet of outdoor concrete surface, a 24 foot full-pipe, and a wooden vert ramp.

(continued)

FACILITY ADDRESS/PHONE	DESCRIPTION
Evan Williams Bourbon Experience 528 W. Main St.   502-272-2623 www.evanwilliams.com/visit.php	Located on Louisville's historic "Whiskey Row," the Evan Williams Bourbon Experience features an artisanal distillery, tours, tastings and more! Celebrating the legacy of Evan Williams, Kentucky's first distiller, this immersive experience brings to life the history and tradition of Kentucky's native spirit.
Falls of the Ohio State Park 201 W. Riverside Dr. Clarksville, IN 812-280-9970   www.fallsoftheohio.org	The 386-million-year-old fossil beds are among the largest naturally exposed Devonian fossil beds in the world. The park features an interpretive center overlooking the fossil beds containing an exhibit gallery and a video presentation.
The Frazier History Museum 829 W. Main St.   502-753-5663 https://fraziermuseum.org	A world-class museum that provides an unforgettable journey through more than 1,000 years of history with ever changing and interactive exhibits, daily performances by costumed interpreters and engaging special events and programs.
Flame Run Glass Studio &amp; Gallery 815 W. Market St.   502-584-5353 www.flamerun.com	This facility offers a one-of-a-kind interactive, artistic experience that brings you up-close to 2000 degree hot glass at the largest privately owned glassblowing studio in the midwest.
Hyland Glass 721 E. Washington St.   502-384-2569 https://hylandglass.com	Stop in and watch handblown glass being crafted into functional everyday glassware, sculptural objects and custom commission pieces. Located in the Butchertown Corridor of NULU next door to the historical Thomas Edison House.
Kentucky Peerless Distilling Company 120 N. Tenth St.   502-566-4999 www.kentuckypeerless.com	With roots dating back to the 1880s, this fifth generation family business produces moonshine and bourbon. Tours of the distillery, tastings, and a retail store are available.
Kentucky Science Center / IMAX Theatre 727 W. Main St.   502-561-6100 www.kysciencecenter.org	Major sciences are brought to life with interactive exhibits that engage your hands, your mind, and your imagination. An educational and entertaining destination for families includes over 40,000 sq. ft. of exhibits, special events, and an IMAX theatre.
KFC Yum! Center 1 Arena Plaza   502-690-9000 www.kfcyumcenter.com	The official home of the University of Louisville men's and women's basketball programs. In addition to being a great concert and sporting event venue, the arena also has spaces to rent for private events.
Louisville Slugger Field 401 E. Main St.   502-212-2287 www.batsbaseball.com	The ballpark is home to the triple-A Louisville Bats baseball team. The retro-classic design of the stadium makes it one of the most attractive and admired parks in minor league baseball.
Lynn Family Stadium 350 Adams St.   502-568-2489 www.loucity.com/lynnfamilystadium	The stadium is the largest soccer-specific stadium in the region with seating for 11,600 fans and a capacity of 15,304. Home to Louisville City FC, the stadium boasts 18 luxury suites, premium seating amenities like club and loge seats along with ledge tables and a standing supporter section.

(continued)

FACILITY ADDRESS/PHONE	DESCRIPTION
Louisville Slugger Museum &amp; Factory 800 W. Main St.   502-775-8443 www.sluggermuseum.com	Hillerich & Bradsby Co. has been manufacturing Louisville Slugger baseball bats since 1884. Visitors can watch bats being made as well as tour the museum that chronicles the impact this factory has had on the sport of baseball.
Mark Payton Glass Center &amp; Gallery 815 W. Market St., #100   502-992-3270 https://paytonglasscenter.com	This multi-use facility is dedicated to the art of glass. Experience flameworking, glassblowing, hands-on workshops, art classes, and studio tours.
Michter's Distillery 801 W. Main St.   502-389-4290 https://michters.com/fortnelson	After undergoing extensive reconstruction, this historic location features the actual copper pot still from the Michter's Pennsylvania Distillery, which traces its history back to 1753. Tours trace each step of whiskey production from the water to maturation.
Muhammad Ali Center 144 N. Sixth St.   502-584-9254 www.alicenter.org	The center provides an innovative and immersive visitor experience utilizing public programming and global initiatives to carry on Muhammad Ali's legacy and continue his life's work.
National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution 809 W. Main St.   502-589-1776 www.sar.org	This national headquarters includes a Genealogical Research Library housing over 55,000 genealogical and historical reference materials. A museum on the American Revolution is planned.
Old Forester Distilling Co. 119 W. Main St.   502-779-2222 www.oldforester.com	Situated in the heart of downtown's historic Whiskey Row, you will find the same four walls that Old Forester called home before Prohibition. Designed from the ground up to be a visitor experience and education center, this fully operational distillery also houses a cooperage and bottling facility.
Rabbit Hole Distillery 711 E. Jefferson St.   502-561-2000 www.rabbitholedistillery.com	Located in the trendy Nulu district, this distillery offers tours that focus on engaging visitors' senses by teaching about the history of bourbon, different flavor notes and profiles, and the process of whiskey making.
Roots 101: African American Museum 124 N. First St.   502-384-1940 https://roots-101.org	This new museum promotes understanding and inspires appreciation of the achievement, contribution and experiences of African Americans using exhibits, programs, and activities to illustrate African-American history, culture, and art.
Thomas Edison House 729 E. Washington St.   502-585-5247 www.edisonhouse.org	Located in historic Butchertown, this 1850s cottage was once home to Thomas Edison. It is now a historic house and museum that seeks to preserve his memory and remarkable achievements.
Waterfront Park 129 E. River Rd.   502-574-3768 www.louisvillewaterfront.com	The 85-acre park includes the Great Lawn and Festival Plaza for special events, two children's play areas, two restaurants, picnic areas, walking paths, and views up and down the Ohio River. The newest addition to the park, the Big Four Bridge, is a former railroad bridge converted into a pedestrian and bicycle path crossing the Ohio River.