

| FACILITY ADDRESS/PHONE | DESCRIPTION |
|---|--|
| 21C Museum 700 W. Main St., 40202 502-217-6300 21cmuseumhotels.com/museum | This facility is an innovative union of authentic Southern hospitality, thoughtful design and accessible luxury — all anchored by world-class contemporary art by today’s emerging and internationally acclaimed artists. (hence the name, paying homage to the 21st century). |
| 4th Street Live! Louisville 411 S. Fourth St., 40202 502-584-7170 4thstlive.com | Louisville’s premier dining and entertainment destination featuring restaurants, bars, nightlife, and visitor attractions all located in the heart of Downtown. |
| Angel’s Envy Distillery 500 E. Main St., 40202 502-890-6300 angelsenvy.com/us/en | Operating in a former tool manufacturing plant, the restored property offers guided tours of the fully operating distillery showcase the distilling process and includes bourbon tastings, a visitor center, and gift shop. |
| Archdiocesan History Center 424 S. Fifth St., 40202 502-582-2971 ext 113 cathedraloftheassumption.org/history/archdiocesan-history-center | Located within the Cathedral of the Assumption’s Patterson Education Center, the center provides an opportunity to experience first-hand, through objects and artifacts, the Catholic heritage of the Archdiocese of Louisville from its earliest beginnings in 1775 to the present day. |
| Bardstown Bourbon Company 730 W. Main St., 40202 bardstownbourbon.com/friendsandfamily | Features highly interactive education and tasting experiences, innovative craft cocktails, augmented reality and immersive digital environments, and curated retail merchandise including exclusive bottles. |
| Barrels & Billets 800 W. Main St., 40202 877-855-7468 barrelsandbillets.com | Enjoy a custom bourbon experience using simialr traditional methods from the 1800’s essentially barrel blending from six world-class bourbons. |
| Belle of Louisville Riverboats 401 W. River Rd., 40202 502-574-2992 belleoflouisville.org | Built in 1914, the Belle is America’s last true Mississippi river steamboat still in operation, while the Mary M. Miller, originally named Missouri River Queen was built in 1985. Both are owned by Louisville Metro Government and offer public cruises along the Ohio River. |
| Brennan House 631 S. Fifth St., 40202 502-540-5145 historiclouisville.com/brennan-house/ | The 1868 Italianate residence is preserved as the Brennan family left it, housing their collection of mid-nineteenth century art and furnishings. The medical office includes surgical instruments of the period, an examining table, and a medical library. |
| Buzzard’s Roost Whiskey Row Experience 624 W. Main St., 40202 502-454-4628 buzzardsroostwhiskey.com/visit-us | Offers three experiences including micro-tour and portfolio sample tasting, hands-on cocktail class and flavor education, and how barrels create whiskey flavors. |

(continued)

| FACILITY ADDRESS/PHONE | DESCRIPTION |
|--|---|
| Copper and Kings American Brandy Co. 1121 E. Washington St., 40206 502-561-0267 copperandkings.com | Using traditional copper-pot distillation, the distillery located in Butchertown produces brandy and vapor-distilled absinthe. Tours and tasting opportunities are available. |
| Cressman Center for Visual Arts 100 E. Main St., 40202 502-852-0288 louisville.edu/art/facilities-resources/cressman-center.html | The center is home to the University of Louisville's Department of Fine Arts glass program. The facility features a hot shop and cold working studios, sculpture studios and shops, a seminar room, and galleries. |
| David Armstrong Extreme Park 531 Franklin St., 40202 502-574-7275 louisvilleky.gov/government/parks/park-list/david-armstrong-extreme-park | The public skatepark provides skateboarding, in-line skating, biking opportunities for people of all ages and skill levels. The facility includes 40,000 square feet of outdoor concrete surface, a 24 foot full-pipe, and a wooden vert ramp. |
| Evan Williams Bourbon Experience 528 W. Main St., 40202 502-272-2623 evanwilliams.com/plan-your-visit | Located on Louisville's historic "Whiskey Row," the Evan Williams Bourbon Experience features an artisanal distillery, tours, tastings and more! Celebrating the legacy of Evan Williams, Kentucky's first distiller, this immersive experience brings to life the history and tradition of Kentucky's native spirit. |
| Falls of the Ohio State Park 201 W. Riverside Dr. Clarksville, IN 47129 812-280-9970 fallsoftheohio.org | The 386-million-year-old fossil beds are among the largest naturally exposed Devonian fossil beds in the world. The park features an interpretive center overlooking the fossil beds containing an exhibit gallery and a video presentation. |
| Frazier History Museum 829 W. Main St., 40202 502-753-5663 fraziermuseum.org | A world-class museum that provides an unforgettable journey through more than 1,000 years of history with ever changing and interactive exhibits, daily performances by costumed interpreters and engaging special events and programs. |
| Flame Run Glass Studio & Gallery 815 W. Market St., 40202 502-584-5353 flamerun.com | This facility offers a one-of-a-kind interactive, artistic experience that brings you up-close to 2000 degree hot glass at the largest privately owned glassblowing studio in the midwest. |
| Hyland Glass 721 E. Washington St., 40202 502-384-2569 hylandglass.com | Stop in and watch handblown glass being crafted into functional everyday glassware, sculptural objects and custom commission pieces. Located in the Butchertown Corridor of NULU next door to the historical Thomas Edison House. |
| Kentucky Peerless Distilling Company 120 N. Tenth St., 40202 502-566-4999 kentuckypeerless.com | With roots dating back to the 1880s, this fifth generation family business produces moonshine and bourbon. Tours of the distillery, tastings, and a retail store are available. |

(continued)

| FACILITY | ADDRESS/PHONE | DESCRIPTION |
|--|---|---|
| Kentucky Science Center | 727 W. Main St., 40202 502-561-6100 kysciencecenter.org | Major sciences are brought to life with interactive exhibits that engage your hands, your mind, and your imagination. An educational and entertaining destination for families includes over 40,000 sq. ft. of exhibits, special events, and an IMAX theatre. |
| KFC Yum! Center | 1 Arena Plaza, 40202 502-690-9000 kfcyumcenter.com | The official home of the University of Louisville men's and women's basketball programs. In addition to being a great concert and sporting event venue, the arena also has spaces to rent for private events. |
| KMAC Contemporary Art Museum | 715 W. Main St., 40202 502-589-0102 kmacmuseum.org | A contemporary art museum that works to connect people to art and creative practice through education, exhibitions, programming, and conversation. |
| Louisville Slugger Field | 401 E. Main St., 40202 502-212-2287 mlb.com/louisville | The ballpark is home to the triple-A Louisville Bats baseball team. The retro-classic design of the stadium makes it one of the most attractive and admired parks in minor league baseball. |
| Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory | 800 W. Main St., 40202 502-775-8443 sluggermuseum.com | Hillerich & Bradsby Co. has been manufacturing Louisville Slugger baseball bats since 1884. Visitors can watch bats being made as well as tour the museum that chronicles the impact this factory has had on the sport of baseball. |
| Lynn Family Stadium | 350 Adams St., 40206 502-568-2489 louisville.com/lynnfamilystadium | The stadium is the largest soccer-specific stadium in the region with seating for 11,600 fans and a capacity of 15,304. Home to Louisville City FC, the stadium boasts 18 luxury suites, premium seating amenities like club and loge seats along with ledge tables and a standing supporter section. |
| Michter's Fort Nelson Distillery | 801 W. Main St., 40202 502-389-4290 michters.com/fortnelson | After undergoing extensive reconstruction, this historic location features the actual copper pot still from the Michter's Pennsylvania Distillery, which traces its history back to 1753. Tours trace each step of whiskey production from the water to maturation. |
| Muhammad Ali Center | 144 N. Sixth St., 40202 502-584-9254 alicenter.org | The center provides an innovative and immersive visitor experience utilizing public programming and global initiatives to carry on Muhammad Ali's legacy and continue his life's work. |
| National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution | 809 W. Main St., 40202 502-589-1776 www.sar.org | This national headquarters includes a Genealogical Research Library housing over 55,000 genealogical and historical reference materials. An American Revolutionary War museum is planned. |
| Old 502 Winery | 915 E. Liberty St., 40204 502-540-5650 | Old 502 Winery is unique combination of urban yet chic, rustic but modern. Includes a tasting room and a speakeasy lounge. |

(continued)

| FACILITY ADDRESS/PHONE | DESCRIPTION |
|---|--|
| Old Forester Distillery 119 W. Main St., 40202 502-779-2222 oldforester.com | Situated in the heart of downtown's historic Whiskey Row, you will find the same four walls that Old Forester called home before Prohibition. Designed from the ground up to be a visitor experience and education center, this fully operational distillery also houses a cooperage and bottling facility. |
| Payton Glass & Creativity Center 815 W. Market St., #100, 40202 502-992-3270 paytonglasscenter.com | This multi-use facility is dedicated to the art of glass. Experience flameworking, glassblowing, hands-on workshops, art classes, and studio tours. |
| Rabbit Hole Distillery 711 E. Jefferson St., 40202 502-561-2000 rabbitholedistillery.com | Located in the trendy Nulu district, this distillery offers tours that focus on engaging visitors' senses by teaching about the history of bourbon, different flavor notes and profiles, and the process of whiskey making. |
| Roots 101: African American Museum 124 N. First St., 40202 502-384-1940 roots-101.org | This new museum promotes understanding and inspires appreciation of the achievement, contribution and experiences of African Americans using exhibits, programs, and activities to illustrate African-American history, culture, and art. |
| Thomas Edison House Museum 729 E. Washington St., 40202 502-585-5247 edisonhouse.org | Located in historic Butchertown, this 1850s cottage was once home to Thomas Edison. It is now a historic house and museum that seeks to preserve his memory and remarkable achievements. |
| Waterfront Park 129 E. River Rd., 40206 502-574-3768 ourwaterfront.org | The 85-acre park includes the Great Lawn and Festival Plaza for special events, two children's play areas, two restaurants, picnic areas, walking paths, and views up and down the Ohio River. The newest addition to the park, the Big Four Bridge, is a former railroad bridge converted into a pedestrian and bicycle path crossing the Ohio River. |